Syzygium jambos (Linn.) Alston

Synonyms : Jambosa vulgaris , Eugenia jambos Linn.

Family : Myrtaceae

 $\label{eq:partsubscription} \textbf{Parts Used}: Fruit \ , \ Leaf, \ Bark$

Vernacular Names

English	: Rose apple
Malayalam	: Chamba
Hindi	: Gulab jamun
Sanskrit	: Campeyah
Kannada	: Pannerale
Tamil	: Champai.

Distribution and habitat: Throughout India.

Botany: A much branched medium sized tree. Wood brown and soft.

- Leaves : Simple, opposite, oblong lanceolate, tapering at both ends.
- Flowers : Greenish white, 5-7.6 cm across, in terminal corymbose cymes.
- Fruit: Yellowish or pinkish, globose, 3.8-5 cm diameter, edible, insipid though sweet scented.
- Seeds : 1-2, grey in large cavity of the succulent pericarp.

Chemical constituents: α -pinene, ocimene

Properties and uses : Astringent, diuretic bitter, sweet, haemostatic, depurative, vulnerary, treatment of Liver complaints, sore eyes

Propagation: Seed, air layering, grafting

